

FIRST SHOW OF THE SEASON

The Ridge Chapter held the first show of the season July 25th at the Lake Region Bank of Commerce in Winter Haven. There were 59 gold seals awarded and more amateur entrants brought bloom to this show than any of those of last year. The arrangement section was sponsored by the Jacaranda Garden Club and included 25 arrangements in five classes.

The Sweepstakes rosettes were won by Mr. Fritz Caspar of Tampa in the Amateur section; Carver & Roxy's Nurseries of Mt. Dora in the Commercial section; and Mr. Theo Rittenmar of Sanford in the Collector section.

The silver trophies went to Mrs. J. N. Ancrum of Winter Park for her "Oahu Beauty" in the Amateur section; Carver & Roxy's Nurseries for their "Joanne Asato" in the Commercial; and Mr. Ed. Wissner for his "Asato #90" in the Collector section.

Other tri-color awards went to Mrs. J. W. Vaughn of Auburndale for her "Elephant Ear"; Carver & Roxy's Nurseries for their "September"; Mr. Ed. Wissner for his "Sally K"; Mr. Stanley Shaner of St. Petersburg for his miniature "Rosette". The seedling tri-colors were dominated by Mr. Harry Goulding of Punta Gorda. His single "Ginger" and double "Big Sister" walked away with both tri-colors.

Mrs. Carl Cooney took the Award of Distinction in the Arrangements and Mrs. Stanley Parker took the tri-color. Both ladies are from Winter Haven.

"Jack, darling," said the bashful honeymooning bride, "lets try to make everyone think we've been married a long time." "O.K. honey," replied the groom, "but do you think you can carry both suitcases?"

"Would you like to see a model home?" asked the real estate salesman.

"Sure would," replied the customer, "what time does she get off?"
